WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE HUMAN IN THE AGE OF AI?

Understanding AI & the questions it poses: a theologian's view

– Prof Karen Kilby (Centre for Catholic Studies, Durham University)

Wednesday 4 November at 7pm on Zoom

Follow on discussion: Wednesday 11 November at 7pm on Zoom (30 mins)

How does Christian Social Thought inspire us to respond to the challenges of AI today?

– A conversation with Dr Christine Allen (CAFOD) and Raymond Friel OBE (CSAN)

Wednesday 9 December at 7pm on Zoom

Follow on discussion: Wednesday 16 December at 7pm on Zoom

What it means to be human and to be in a personal relationship with one another, with God and with the rest of creation

– Prof Tina Beattie

Wednesday 27 January at 7pm IN PERSON AT NEW HALL and online

Follow on discussion: Wednesday 3 February at 7pm on Zoom

Disarming Artificial Intelligence: AI, Autonomous Weapons and the Church

– Aaron Humphriis (Montini Centre for Peace)

Wednesday 3 March at 7pm on Zoom

Follow on discussion: Wednesday 10 March at 7pm on Zoom

AI, leadership and moral maturity

– Dr Anna Abram (Margaret Beaufort Institute, University of Cambridge)

Wednesday 21 April at 7pm on Zoom

Follow on: Wednesday 28th April at 7pm on Zoom